

Fiscal Report Shows County Within Budget

Road Costs $123,580; Charity Requires $67,649 Total

San Mateo county's financial position is satisfactory, according to a report completed today by Controller Edward M. Stack, with virtually all the departments of government within or near the 1933-34 budget. Some of the departments, however, are running over, Stack said, and will be asked to curtail expenditures to avoid deficits in the next six months.

The report, compiled by Stack to guide the fiscal affairs for the next half of the year, has been submitted to County Executive Walter Kellogg and the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors for perusal. It puts at rest earlier reports that the county might be found in the "red" at the end of the first half of the year.

Stack will prepare another report in April when drastic curtailment will be ordered by any departments running close to the line.

Road Costs $123,580

The special road improvement fund created from gas tax and other sources has seen the expenditure of $50,686.99 for salaries and wages of a budget of $81,780. This leaves $31,093.01 for future operation, indicating need of the considerable curtailment which County Engineer James S. James has said would be necessary.

The maintenance fund of this department has been virtually exhausted, with $44,442.40 expended and $1,557.60 remaining. The sum of $3,451.71 has been expended on the Memorial Park and La Honda roads, leaving $50,348.29 to the credit of these two special projects. Capital outlay on the La Honda road has been $7,708.20, giving a balance of $1,291.80. Total expenditures on all roads for the first six months has been $123,580.79, with $122,029.21 remaining of a $245,610 budget. Total expenditures last year were $260,715.20.

Work Relief Costs

Unemployment relief funds raised by direct taxes has cost $31,384.47, leaving a balance of $74,615.53. Work relief has cost $1,694.47 for compensation, insurance, and food relief, $29,690.

Charity aid by the social service department has cost $67,649.88 for the first six months of the new fiscal year, which will require a slowing up during the next six months because only $40,193.12 will be left of a total budget for this purpose of $107,843.

The budget item a year ago was $130,450.28.

The salary schedule in this department, for which $7,950 was budgeted, is within the half-year amount, with $3,637.50 spent and $4,312.50 remaining. The sum of $1,839.49 has been spent on operation, leaving $938.51.

Hospital Expenses

Expenditures at the Community Hospital for the first six months totaled $43,067.39 for salaries and wages, leaving $42,277.61 for this same purpose for the next half year. Maintenance costs were $32,810.04, with $34,905.96 remaining.

The health and welfare department has expended $2,025.99 of its $7,845 salary budget, leaving $5,819.01. For maintenance it has spent $385.40, leaving a balance of $1,114.60.

Elections cost the county $29,594.81 for the presidential primary; $13,373.94 for the special election, and $34,082.88 for the general election.

Psychic Opens Engagement At Sequoia Sunday

"Gordon the Great," claimant to the title of the world's foremost psychic and famed mental wizard, will appear in person on the stage of the Fox-Sequoia Theater for one week starting Sunday, according to an announcement today by Thomas J. Kane, manager of the theater.

"Gordon the Great" boasts the distinction of being the only mentalist to be called to the White House to read for a president of the United States. Press representatives reported that he was closeted at one time for more than an hour with the late Calvin Coolidge. However, the nature of the questions were never divulged.

The mentalist will appear at every performance and those attending the theater will be given an opportunity for private readings.

ROLPH WARMLY GREETED ON VISIT TO PENINSULA; PLEDGES AID TO ROADS

Describing his visit to Redwood City and San Mateo county as a "home coming," Governor James Rolph Jr. in talks here and at San Mateo today had renewed his pledges to build any and all roads that the peninsula requires.

The governor was met by several hundred persons at the courthouse steps here late yesterday, and was feted last night at a banquet at the Hotel Benjamin Franklin in San Mateo. About 200 civic and political leaders greeted him there.

Among the first road projects to secure the attention of the state will be the widening to four lanes of El Camino Real.

Promises were also made that the San Mateo-Half Moon Bay and the Ocean Shore highways would see the start of early action.

Rolph explained from the steps of the courthouse here that his visit was in keeping with his pledge "to go amongst the people at least once a year."

"You haven't the money to come and see me, nor the time to spare," he said. "So I have to come to you."

Rolland Vandegrift, state director of finance, said, "but times are definitely better."

He cited the resumption of dividend payments by the largest banking chain as a concrete illustration to emphasize this point.

Rolph told of the $78,000,000 going into the San Francisco-Oakland bridge and the $170,000,000 Central Valley water project as two of the state's outstanding efforts to create employment and said that nowhere was such a program being undertaken.

Pleased With Welcome

Greeted here by County Executive Walter Kellogg on behalf of the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors and by Mayor William J. Dusel on behalf of Redwood City, Governor Rolph said at last night's banquet:

"I received a welcome nowhere to a greater degree than at Redwood City."

Dennis O'Keefe, Republican leader, introduced the governor.

The Sequoia Union High School band under Max Gelber furnished the music for the escort of Governor Rolph to the courthouse.

Mayor Aylett Cotton of San Mateo presided at the banquet, and Sheriff James J. McGrath acted as toastmaster.

Among those from the governor's official family called upon to speak were Edward Rainey, superintendent of banks; Earl Lee Kelly, chairman of the department of public works; Frank McDonald, state labor commissioner, and

JAMES ROLPH, JR.

Rolland Vandegrift, state director of finance.

Tells Highway Plans

Kelly, in outlining the expenditures made in San Mateo county, said among the first projects to be considered will be the widening of El Camino Real.

He also promised an early start on the construction work on the new highway from San Mateo to Half Moon Bay.

Speaking on roads, Governor Rolph said that the Ocean Shore highway was another which was being considered.

Rainey credited the governor with averting financial ruin of many bank depositors through the bank holidays which he declared.

McDonald, explaining the expenditure of state surpluses, said the governor valued the state treasury less than human life, and declared some features of the Roosevelt program were put into effect three years ago by Rolph to aid unemployment.

Vandegrift denied the state "disrupted" any surpluses, and declared the present cost of government based upon population is 8.1 per cent below the cost four years ago.

Others in the governor's party were Russell Bevans, registrar of motor vehicles; E. Raymond Cato, chief of the California Highway Patrol; Eric Cullenward, William C. McCarthy, Wooster Taylor, Alec Doyle and Leroy Smith.

City and county officials of virtually every peninsula community, members of women's clubs, veterans circle members, and Republican and Democratic leaders gathered at the banquet.

PSYCHIC ENGAGED BY SEQUOIA

Zoning Study Of Atherton Area Ordered

Woodside Road Width Of 100 Feet Urged By Commission

Zoning to determine land uses of all property within the unincorporated area of San Mateo county extending from Atherton to the Mills Estate in Millbrae was under authorization today of the San Mateo County Planning Commission.

East and west the zoning will extend from the Skyline boulevard to San Francisco bay. The planning commission also authorized the technical staff to proceed with public hearings on the Skyline boulevard zoning plan. The purpose of the latter move is to regulate billboards and highway standards. No dates have yet been set for these hearings.

The planners also recommend a 100-foot right of way for the Woodside road from Woodside to the Menlo Country Club. This project is now underway, with rights of way being sought by Engineer James S. James.

Hearings on the application of Harry Laurentzen of North Palo Alto to rezone his property from residential to business was set for March 9 and April 13.

Date of the hearing of Mrs. C. Silvestria of Palo Alto Park to have her property rezoned from single family to the two-family classification was set for March 9th.

Flood Estate Wind-up Soon Is Indicated

Mrs. Gavin Arrives in San Francisco for Settlement

Speedy wind-up of the long-contested James L. Flood estate was forecast Monday following the arrival in San Francisco of Constantine May Gavin, who is to receive more than $1,000,000 as the result of a compromise of her suit for a daughter's share.

It was believed here that final papers in the compromise, which will terminate a contest that has dragged through the San Mateo county court for seven years, will be signed shortly.

Almost immediately afterward, it is expected that a short hearing will be held in court here to bring settlement of the estate to a close.

At this hearing the uncontested testimony of a witness that Mrs. Gavin is not the daughter of Flood will be put into the court record. It has been indicated, and a decree of distribution of the estate will be sought.

Mrs. Gavin is now staying at the home of John T. Taaffe, her attorney. She is suffering from a nervous stomach ailment and has been confined to her bed for most of the time since her arrival yesterday.

Two Are Certified For San Mateo P. O.

Harold M. Coleman and John H. Kelley have been certified by the civil service commission as eligible for appointment to the San Mateo postmastership, the postoffice department in Washington announced today, according to an Associated Press dispatch.

LAWYER DIES IN CRASH ON BAYSHORE HIGHWAY

Crushed under the wreckage of his car when it careened off the Bayshore highway near Mills Field, Marion W. Cooper, 33, attorney for the California-Hawaiian Sugar Refining Corporation, met death early today.

Cooper was dead by the time state traffic police could manage to have the car removed from his body, according to State Officer Lloyd Minehan. The motorist was pronounced dead upon arrival at the Mills Memorial Hospital at San Mateo.

Minehan reported that Cooper's chest was crushed by the weight of the car.

Cooper, riding alone in a light-make sedan, was going north on the highway.

PRESIDENT'S AIDE VIEWS AUTO OF THE FUTURE

MARVIN MCINTYRE, secretary to President Roosevelt, displayed keen interest in an amazing modernistic three-wheeled, super stream-lined automobile, driven by Capt. Al Williams, noted speed flyer and former U. S. Navy pilot, when it visited the White House executive offices in Washington recently. The body of the unusual car, which can do 120 miles an hour and goes about 30 miles on a gallon of gas, is made of light-weight duralumin, of high tensile strength, and weighs a thousand pounds less than the conventional Ford sedan. The low pressure Junco tires further carry out the streamline principle. Powered by a Ford V-8 engine, mounted in the rear behind the passenger compartment, it is steered by the single rear wheel, while the power is supplied through the two front wheels. In the photograph above, at the White House, are Capt. Williams (left), and Mr. McIntyre.

Man Is Killed on Highway In Aiding Hit-Run Victims

Albert Clifton Davis, 56, of Redwood City, was killed at about midnight last night on El Camino Real near Selby Lane, Atherton, as he rushed to the aid of two other local residents who had been struck down by a hit-run automobile.

Davis was run down by an automobile driven by Gary Manning, 900 Broderick street, San Francisco. Both apparently became confused, according to police, and turned in the same direction while Davis was running across the highway.

The two others who were injured by the hit-run car were D. McLean, 51, of the Del Monte Hotel here, who incurred injuries to his right leg, and Mrs. Bessie Reynolds, 48, also of the Del Monte Hotel, who sustained a possible concussion of the brain and other injuries. Both are under treatment at the Community hospital.

They were walking across the highway towards their parked car when they were sideswiped by a speeding automobile that failed to stop. Observers declared it to have been a Ford roadster, but the Atherton police, who investigated the accident, had so far today been unable to find any trace of it.

McLean and Mrs. Reynolds screamed, according to witnesses, as they were struck, and Davis, who was standing close by, started rushing across the highway and into the path of Manning's machine.

Mr. Davis was employed at the Peninsula Supply Company here and resided at Dumbarton Oaks. He had lived here for three years, having formerly been a resident of San Francisco. He was a member of the Elks and Knights of Pythias.

Surviving him is his widow, Mrs. Cora Davis, who was visiting her father in Marysville at the time of the tragedy.

Funeral arrangements have not yet been made. The body is at the Layng and Tinney Funeral Home. An inquest will be held.

Legion Commander To Honor Stanford

Edward A. Hayes, national commander of the American Legion, will present the Fidac educational medal formally to Stanford University at ceremonies to be held in the Stanford Memorial Church at 2 p. m. next Wednesday, it was announced today.

Fidac, international allied veterans' organization, awarded the medal to Stanford for distinguished service in the promotion of world relations at its congress last September in Casablanca, Morocco.

Dr. Ray Lyman Wilbur will accept the medal on behalf of the university. Former President Herbert Hoover and representatives of 12 nations are invited to attend the ceremony.

Card Party Control Sought By Council

Attempted regulation of card parties given for personal profit was revived Monday night by the city council at its regular meeting at the fire house when City Attorney Albert Mansfield was directed to revise an ordinance proposed in April, 1931, for re-submission to the board.

It is contemplated that a $10 license fee will be assessed against each card party held for personal gain. Parties given by fraternal, benefit or charitable organizations would be exempted from this provision under the terms of the ordinance.

The 1931 ordinance was introduced but was laid on the table before it was ever adopted. The councilmen were of the opinion that control over card parties not given by organizations is necessary.

Santa Clara Charter Plan Is Defeated

San Mateo County's 'Tangle' Blamed For Defeat

SAN JOSE, Feb. 21 (Special).—Unwilling to change the form of government in existence since the establishment of the county in the last century, Santa Clara county voters at yesterday's special election defeated the proposed new county charter by a majority of nearly 5,000, completion of the vote tabulation today revealed. The complete vote was 19,460 against the charter to 14,750 for it. San Jose, most populous center of the county, returned a majority of 4,029 votes against the charter. The proposed form of government won its greatest favor in Palo Alto, which voted 2,088 "yes" and 990 "no."

The only other communities favoring the document, drawn by a board of freeholders elected last August, were Stanford University, Los Altos, Sunnyvale, Saratoga and Los Gatos. All others opposed it, with Santa Clara defeating the proposal by a 4 to 1 vote and several other opposing it by 3 to 1.

Charter advocates in some sections were included to place the blame for the defeat upon the injection of the San Mateo county charter controversies of last summer for defeat of the Santa Clara charter.

Were it not for the picture drawn of upset conditions in San Mateo county, the charter here would have been victorious, they asserted. San Mateo county's alleged difficulties were described in vivid language in advertisements issued by charter opponents in the closing week of the campaign.

Fifty-two per cent of the county's registered vote went to the polls yesterday, an unusually high proportion for a special election at which only one issue was presented to the people.

The vote in some of the main communities was as follows: San Jose—5,376 yes; 9,405 no. Palo Alto—2,088 yes; 990 no. Santa Clara—279 yes; 978 no. Mountain View—375 yes; 388 no. Sunnyvale—283 yes; 150 no. Gilroy—138 yes; 547 no. Morgan Hill—156 yes; 163 no.

Only supervisorial district to favor the charter was the northern district, No. 5, which includes Palo Alto and practically all of the districts which voted for the proposed new form of government. Its supervisor is C. P. Cooley of Palo Alto.

SKEGGS WILL TELL PLANS FOR HIGHWAY

Owners of Property Urged to Attend February 26

Proposed widening of El Camino Real within the city limits of Redwood City was set today for a public hearing before the city council and planning commission on Monday, February 26, at 8 o'clock.

The meeting will be held in the central firehouse auditorium on Middlefield road. City Clerk E. E. Myers today sent out notices to all property owners on the highway.

Colonel John H. Skeggs of the San Francisco office of the California Highway Commission will be present to give the property owners such information as is available on the proposal.

Stanford Youth Sets Solo Flight Record

PALO ALTO, Feb. 21.—W. F. Erskine, Stanford junior, today set what is believed to be a solo flight record, making his first solo hop successfully after only two hours, 25 minutes of flying instruction.

His teacher is John Preston, former Stanford football star and ex-army aviator. Erskine is registered from Kodiak, Alaska.

Burglary Reported On Edgewood Road

Burglary of his home at 435 Edgewood road Monday evening was reported to the Redwood City police today by Emil Berndsen. Entrance was apparently gained by use of a pass key.

In the Governor's Favor!

"Hear one side and you will be in the dark; hear both sides and all will be clear," said Thomas W. Haliburton, jurist and author.

The four hundred guests of the Amigos club, who listened to Governor Rolph's "stewardship" during the nearly four years of his administration, heard "the other side," given not only by His Excellency, but by members of his official family.

It's something to be proud of that the credit of California stands so high its bonds yielded the highest per cent of any state bonds in the nation.

It's something, too, to know that the state is giving a greater service in government at less per capita cost now than previously, and there has been a 10 per cent decrease during the past four years in the cost of state government of the previous four years considered on the basis of increased population.

Yes, it's well to "hear both sides" before you begin to criticize!—San Jose Mercury-Herald.

Mrs. John Christ and Mrs. Frank Wentworth, who have been visiting Mrs. L. D. Rathbone at Santa Rosa, returned home Saturday. They were accompanied by Mrs. Reed, Mr. Rathbone's mother and Master Ralph, who will visit Redwood City friends for a few weeks.

Georgia W. Lovie this week sold the Molt place consisting of eight acres and a residence at Woodside to Joseph Hallett. Mr. Lovie says there is a rapidly growing demand for real estate in this locality.

The engagement of E. I. Kincaid and Miss Genevieve Smith of Cloverdale is announced. The prospective groom is the brother of Archer Kincaid and is a native of Redwood City. He has for several years held a position with the Northwestern Railroad Company and resides at Cloverdale.

Boy Scout Drive Nears Local Quota

Additional contributions to the annual Boy Scout financial campaign in Redwood City today brought the total within reach of the local quota by the end of the week, it was announced by Guy R. Kennedy, chairman.

Donations were received today from L. C. Christensen, W. W. Thompson, Beeger Tanning Co., H. A. Beeger, Garfield school, Dr. N. C. Cummings, Dr. August J. Fromm, Sanford B. Dole, Ambrose McSweeney, John Moore, Henry Witte and Mrs. Leslie Miller Moore.

Menlo Park

Mrs. David Kirby, who passed away at her home in San Jose last Saturday, was a former resident of Menlo Park. She was a sister of the late Mrs. J. H. O'Keefe, and was the mother of Mrs. Elizabeth Bohgini, teacher in the Central School, and of William Kirby, who recently passed the bar examination in San Francisco. Besides Mr. Kirby, she is survived by several grown children. She was well known and well-liked in this community.

Two hundred ex-service men doing rehabilitation work in the occupational therapy ward of the United States Veterans' Facility here were guests Monday afternoon at a party arranged by Mrs. R. T. Unger, chairman of co-operation with war veterans for the San Francisco District Federation of Women's Clubs. Mrs. Unger was assisted by the Mountain View Woman's Club, the East Palo Alto Woman's Club, and the Alan H. Nichols Auxiliary, No. 69, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States. The program included marimba solos by Ray Tinney; songs by P. H. Huster, accompanied by Russell Darling; dance numbers by Betty Ernest and Rosemary Withgitt, violin duet by Thomas Hand and Marguerite Hand, accompanied by Dorothy Saunders; vocal solos by Mrs. Isabelle Lindquist.

Mr. and Mrs. Eli Wiel of Menlo Park are enjoying a winter sojourn at Arrowhead Springs.

Also in the Southwest—but much farther afield—are Mr. and Mrs. Selah Chamberlain, who are on a trip to Mexico.

Thirty-one tables of whist were played at the card party given last night by the General George S. Evans Relief Corps at the United States Veterans' Hospital at North Palo Alto. Mrs. Mary Winter and her committee members were in charge. Refreshments were served, and gifts were provided.

The corps is planning a card party for February 27 in Veterans' Hall, with Mrs. Augusta Sharkey in charge.

Belmont Clerk Race Becomes 3-Way Contest

BELMONT, Feb. 21.—Municipal politics had become more tense today following assurance of a three-cornered race for the post of city clerk.

Mrs. Edna McGowan, until recently Belmont postmistress, has announced her candidacy for that office. She is the wife of Robert L. McGowan and a sister-in-law of Councilman Louis C. Vannier, who is also to be a candidate for re-election.

Opposing her so far are Ray Kelly, incumbent clerk, and Alexander Morrison.

Two candidates, Capt. A. T. Habrout of the fire department and Mrs. Kate Williams, have announced themselves for the race for the post of city treasurer.

Mayor Chris L. Jordan will be a candidate for re-election to the council.

San Carlos Scouts To Conduct Drive

SAN CARLOS, Feb. 21.—Spurred by President Roosevelt's plea for a national "good turn," San Carlos Boy Scouts will conduct a drive on Saturday for clothing, bedding, furniture, or other articles for distribution to the needy.

Twenty-two districts were outlined to the scouts at their meeting Monday. Residents who have excess articles are urged to contribute them to the drive, which will be A. L. Mewhitter and James Edling and William Johnson, assistant scoutmasters. Articles collected will be turned over to certain needy San Carlos residents and the central relief committee at San Mateo.

Probate of Will Sought in Court

A petition for probate of the will of Henry W. Ollis, who died at Berkeley on February 12, was filed with the superior court today by a sister, Celeste Lloyd of Berkeley, who is named executrix. The only other heir is declared to be another sister, Mary E. Green of Denver, Colo. Redmond C. Staats and J. J. Cowen Jr. of Berkeley are attorneys for the petitioner.

FINAL DIVORCE GRANTED
Decree of final divorce had been given today by Superior Judge Franklin Swart to Mrs. Dorothy Blackburn of Burlingame from Ben R. Blackburn. The interlocutory decree was granted on February 16, 1933.

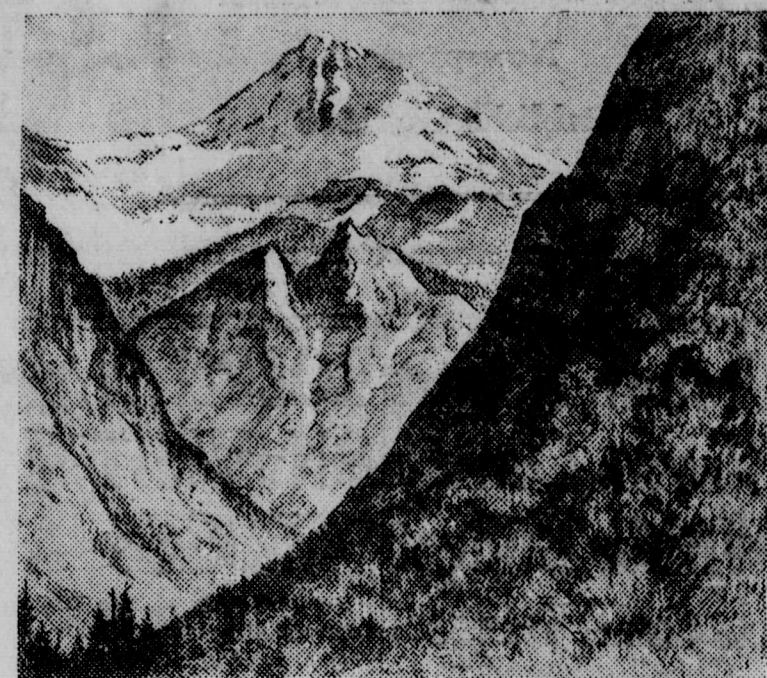

Coastsiders Urged To Support Johnson

HALF MOON BAY, Feb. 20.—The selection of State Treasurer Charles G. Johnson as the Republican nominee for governor at the August primary election was advocated by William Gearhart, San Francisco attorney at a meeting before members of the Lions Club at Half Moon Bay last night. As a campaign representative, Mr. Gearhart appeared in behalf of Treasurer Johnson, who was detained in Sacramento by press of state business.

Mr. Johnson, Mr. Gearhart said, has shown that business methods are required in state government by earning more than $2,000,000 for the state. He accomplished this by putting idle state money to work earning higher rates of interest from the banks. He increased this state revenue from $700,000 to more than $1,000,000 his first year in office and raised annual profits for the people until today they are more than $2,600,000 annually.

Oberlin was the first co-educational college in America.

STABILITY

AMONG the many factors which contribute to the stability of Bank of America are the following: It is a statewide branch banking organization. Its far-flung geographical structure or "statewideness," makes for unusual stability through a widespread distribution of resources. Bank of America is conservatively and ably managed by far-visioned, long-experienced executives who fully realize their responsibility to over one million depositors and to the 248 communities in which the bank operates 415 branches.

CAN A PENNILESS BOY DARE LOVE A RICH MAN'S DAUGHTER?

Yes! decided handsome Pablito, swept away by Estelle Field's loveliness. Unattainable? Of course she was—but when did youth ever stop at that barrier?

No! growled Jim Fields—and when he found that the usual threats about money meant nothing to these two, he played his trump card . . . and triumphed.

Pablito is the unconventional hero of this unconventional story. A bronzed, flaxen-haired youngster of mysterious origin—a fighter and a gentleman.

Estelle is the utterly captivating heroine of this dramatic romance with its glittering Southern background and swift action. A love story of rare beauty.

Pope Street Bridge Project Meets With Legal Obstacle

Legal obstacles which forbid the creation of a debt to be paid out of next year's budget today had blocked the plans of the North Palo Alto Residents Club to have the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors pledge $1500 toward the purchase of land required in the widening of the Pope street bridge over San Francisco creek.

The proposal made by Mrs. Mona L. Christensen, Harry Lortzen, J. M. Armstrong and Dr. E. R. Tait, who represented the North Palo Alto group, was that the county agree to buy from William Cranston a strip of land about 1500 feet long which is needed in relocating the channel of the creek.

This relocation is vital to the success of the efforts to reconstruct the Pope street bridge, County Engineer James S. James of San Mateo county said.

James was of the opinion that Cranston ought to give without charge that part of the property which is needed to change the channel of the creek, and to make a deal at some future time for the remainder.

Supervisor John W. Poole of Redwood City, in whose district the project is situated, moved that the property be acquired as proposed by the North Palo Alto group.

Chairman C. V. Thompson called upon District Attorney Edmund Falvey are her attorneys.

Scott to rule upon the legality of creating the $1500 debt at this time. Scott said it could not be done. This ended the discussion and apparently blocked the new bridge as a CWA project.

Railroad Stop Sign Ruling Deferred By County Board

Proposal that the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors install stop signs on all railroad crossings in the unincorporated area was under continuance today for one week while the subject is debated by the board.

The proposal was made by the Peninsula Grade Crossing Conference through T. L. Chess of San Mateo, chairman of the educational committee. Chess said the cost would be about $4 to $5 per sign. He urged that the signs be located off the railroad right-of-way and that they be backed up with police authority so that motorists who ignored the signs could be cited "and set up as examples."

Chess said it would not absolve the carriers of responsibility in the event of a collision or death if the motorist had ignored the stop sign. The conference, he said, urges the signs as a step in the campaign to put an end to crossing deaths.

Mrs. Ella Chess of Lomita Park asked whether or not it was the duty under the law for railroads to install warning signs. Chess replied that this is true of the familiar warning cross-arm and other safety devices, but said the law did not cover the stop signs.

Fred Comba, Redwood City attorney, said the traffic laws already require that motorists must come to a stop at all railroad crossings.

The board, upon motion of Supervisor Albert Witt, Colma, seconded by Supervisor Manuel Francis, Half Moon Bay, referred the matter to County Executive Walter Kellogg for a report and continued the matter for one week.

Crossings Inspected By Rail Commission

Representatives of the engineering department of the state railroad commission on Wednesday were to inspect all railroad crossings within the city limits of Redwood City.

The group was to meet City Manager E. A. Rolison and other city officials at 2:30 p. m. at the Rogers street crossing and then proceed with the inspection.

Crossings in San Mateo, Belmont and San Mateo were inspected earlier today by the commission's engineers.

An interlocutory decree of divorce was given Lloyd Louise Sutherland from Robert F. Sutherland of San Bruno by Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt today. The plaintiff was also given custody of their child, Robert Jr., and $20 a month for his support.

Weapons Found After Prison Raid

It looks like a miniature arsenal, but this array of weapons represents the fruits of a house-cleaning conducted at Welfare Island after police raided the famous New York penitentiary. In the collection, which keepers are shown examining, are stilettos, hatchets, butcher knives and meat cleavers. The milk cans contained mash used in the making of home-brew.

Filipino Burglars Receive Jail Terms

Two Filipino youths who pleaded guilty to charges of burglarizing an Atherton residence occupied by three Stanford students had been committed today to the county jail by Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt.

Crispula Dadaba was sentenced to six months, and Albert Tayas was given a 60-day term. Both were also placed on 18 months' probation.

The two were arrested by Redwood City police three weeks ago after an odd sock bearing the name of one of the occupants of the Atherton home was found in their possession.

Cranston Is Aiding Pope Street Project

William Cranston, Palo Alto real estate man, said today that he is cooperating fully with the plans for relocating the channel of San Francisco creek which is desired in connection with the Pope street widening project.

Cranston said he has made an offer to San Mateo county to trade the desired unit for a new one to be created by relocating the creekbed. He said he also sees the chance that the project will be done under the CWA.

Rail Crossing Gates Demanded By Burlingame

BURLINGAME, Feb. 21. — Demand for safety gates at the Oak Grove crossing where Mrs. Edna McGinn met her death in an automobile collision was made before the Burlingame City Council at its meeting.

Mayor C. A. Buck appointed Allen F. Hunt, Ernest Rickard and R. S. Bentley as members of a committee to confer with the Southern Pacific Co. on the matter.

Death of Mrs. McGinn was due in part to contributory negligence for the Southern Pacific and those in charge of a CWA project at the scene of the accident, it was decided by a coroner's jury at the inquest yesterday.

CWA workers testified that dirt piled near the crossing from a CWA sewage project ditch partially obstructed a view of the approaching train and that noise of an air compressor made it impossible to hear the train's warning signals.

At another inquest it was determined that Ramado Martinez, 33, met his death accidentally in the crash of his airplane at San Mateo.

Auto Damage Claim Referred to Scott

Claim of George W. Fletcher for $37 against the county for damages suffered by his automobile in a collision in San Carlos with the car of Dr. Harold Morrison was referred by the board of supervisors today to District Attorney Edmund Scott for a report.

The Voters League of Daly City urged the county to seek reimbursement for insurance companies for the cost of hospitalization given schoolyard accident cases where the cost should have been charged against the county.

The league also commended the stand of the board in the milk controversy for protecting home industry. Both communications were signed by John J. Fahey Jr., secretary.

The Bayshore Voters League asked the installation of additional street lights. The petition was referred back to the group with instructions to secure the necessary 25 signatures.

The Bayshore Improvement and Social Club opposed the moving of the offices of the health chief from San Mateo to Redwood City.

Report on sewer conditions in Brisbane was made to the board by Hugh Pomeroy, advisor to the county planning commission who made the following recommendations: (1) that the present system (be cleaned out and repaired); (2) that an outfall sewer be constructed; (3) that the present system be extended to take in the whole community; (4) that septic tanks be prohibited; and (5) that sewer connections be supervised.

Pomeroy said Supervisor Witt had gone as far as he had authority in taking care of the emergency and that it was up to the district to act.

The Montara Lighting District withdrawal matter was continued two weeks.

Youth Tells Attack At Millbrae Resort

BURLINGAME, Feb. 19.—Jack Krigbaum, 704 Newhall road, Burlingame, collapsed in the Burlingame police station today and told police that he had been struck while leaving a Millbrae resort. He said he was struck over the right eye while getting into his car.

Crowds Gather To See Remains Of King Albert

BRUSSELS, Feb. 20 (UP)—Thousands of sorrowing Belgians passed today before the body of King Albert as it lay in state on its catafalque in the Chappelle Ardente of the royal palace.

Clad in a general's uniform, the face bruised by a fatal fall from a mountain rock face, the king's body lay in a setting of silver and black draperies and green foliage. The dead king's body will lie in state tomorrow as well as today. The funeral will be held Thursday, with kings and princes in attendance.

Coastside Woman Is Granted Divorce

Mrs. Rose Valladao of Half Moon Bay today had been granted an interlocutory decree of divorce from Carl Valladao by Superior Judge Maxwell McNutt.

The plaintiff was also awarded custody of their children, Barbara and Robert, provided that the defendant may have the children on each alternate week-end and for half of each school vacation period. Mrs. Valladao was given $20 a month for their support.

Book-Maker Given Year's Probation

Thomas McFarland, 41, owner of a store on Willow road near the Veterans' Administration Hospital, was granted a year's probation yesterday afternoon by Superior Judge Franklin Swart on a charge of operating a book-making establishment.

McFarland was arrested several weeks ago in a gambling raid conducted by Sheriff James J. McGrath.
